Autumn is here, ready to dress little feet in warm tones. The light turns softer, perfect for showing off the season's sparkle that brightens up every look. With the chill arriving, it's time to debut shoes and ankle boots with cosy linings, just as the days grow shorter... But nothing stops the urge to play! That's why we need the comfiest trainers for little ones and grown-ups alike.

Velvet also makes a comeback, with elegant and versatile designs for the whole family. On other days, the rain brings puddles calling for wellies always ready to splash on the way to school. And after all the daily adventures, nothing beats coming home and slipping into warm slippers... perhaps even for a pyjama party?

This collection has a clear star: comfort. Versatile footwear for every occasion, lovingly crafted in Spain, so that each step becomes a special moment. Discover all the new arrivals on the following pages!
